The Law of the Sea course provides comprehensive analysis of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea (LOSC) from a legal and policy perspective. It includes the following topics:

- Historical development of the Law of the Sea
- Framework for understanding LOSC
- Baselines
- Maritime zones under the jurisdiction of coastal States
- The high seas
- The deep seabed
- The continental shelf
- Fisheries management: Legal framework & current debates
- Protection & preservation of the marine environment
- Maritime boundary delimitation
- Maritime boundary disputes
- Settlement of disputes under LOSC

ANCORS also offers the following professional courses in 2012:
- Maritime Regulation and Enforcement
- Fisheries Management
- Introduction to Fisheries Adjustment
- International Fisheries Law (tbc)

Places are limited. Registrations will be accepted in the order in which they are received. Other specialist courses can be tailored to the needs of specific clients. Please contact ANCORS for further details.

ADMINISTRATIVE DETAILS

Venue: Room G.012, ITAMS Bldg, University of Wollongong Innovation Campus, Squires Way, Fairy Meadow

Duration: Five consecutive days

Fees: A$2,750.00 (includes 10% GST).

Accommodation: Accommodation is available at a range of nearby hotels and motels. Please contact us for assistance with accommodation arrangements.

Contact person:
Ms Myree Mitchell
ANCORS, University of Wollongong,
Wollongong NSW 2500 Australia
Tel +61 2 4221 4883

ANCORS is an established reputation for expertise in ocean management and law, fisheries law and policy, and maritime security, in Australia, throughout the Asia-Pacific region and farther afield. ANCORS undertakes academic research and education, and also provides professional training, research services and other assistance to policymakers and regional organisations. For more information about ANCORS, visit www.ancors.uow.edu.au.

Wollongong is a major regional city situated between pristine beaches and the picturesque Illawarra Escarpment. Wollongong is conveniently located just 1.5 hours south of Sydney & Sydney airport and 2.5 hours from Canberra.